

NATURAL LAW AS THE TEN COMMANDMENTS

	Old Testament	New Testament
1.	I am the Lord thy God; thou shalt not have strange gods before me.	You have come from God out or nothing, and you shall return to God with everything. Even by saving and serving environmentally, man should never play God and control natural processes.
2.	Thou shalt not take the name of of God in vain.	Clean up your act. Natural processes may be studied and modified within limits of non-abusive respect for and relative subservience to each being's membership in nature. Sacramentalize all being by the Last Words of Jesus. 'Father, forgive them, they know not what they do' (Penance). 'This day thou will be with me In paradise' (Holy Orders). 'Woman behold thy Son' (Baptism). 'Oh my God, why has thou forsaken me?' (Holy Communion). 'I thirst' (Matrimony). 'it is finished' (Extreme Unction). 'Into thy hands, oh Lord, I commend my spirit' (Confirmation). 'The earthquake' (Grace/Form).
3.	Remember thou shalt keep holy the Sabbath Day.	Stay in touch with God by weekly Mass and monthly Confession. Ritualized respectful remembrance of all being continuously accepts and supports Nature and the Planet. Everyday is the Sabbath day when weather is sacramentalized: Rain—Baptism, Wind — Penance, Bright Comfortable Sunlight — Holy Communion, Chilly Cold — Confirmation, Sweaty Heat — Extreme Unction, Lightening — Holy Orders, Thunder - Matrimony. All weather is the Sabbath. Even the weather gives sacramental grace. Rituals and rules make one free.
4.	Honor thy father and thy mother.	Respect, honor, and listen to those who know more than you do. Each species' social unit is to be respected for it creates the space-time cone of individual existence. The fundamental social unit for mankind is the family — a procreative/unitive and male/female complimentary duality with a head of a household living with one or more related individuals in a process of shared responsibility, mutual growth, reciprocal commitment, and self-sacrificing performance. This is 'marriage': a conscious promise between a man and woman to live as two persons in one creature supporting the species in conformity with the planet and reflective of the Trinity.
5.	Thou shalt not kill.	Living things are precious and violence is to be avoided. Indiscriminate killing is not found in nature and violence is limited to survival. The rearing of offspring is by unitive protective caring. Solidarity with all being requires respect for 'evolution' (if believed) which further requires rejection of abortion, contraception, cloning, cannibalism (including that of human embryos) and genetic control. Evolution is not evolution if man controls it. And evolution has not ended with man because each man's (male or female) space-time-spirit cone must 'evolve' into transcendental timelessness.

6.	Thou shalt not commit adultery.	Extramarital sex is nothing but trouble. Extra pro-creative and extra-unitive 'sex' squirting is an environmental excretory (pollution) function called "sexcretion". Adult females will only accept sexuality of a male in a procreative unitive ("marital" for humans) oneness. As in Genesis, where the woman does not say "No" there is hell to pay. Sexcretion for males is diarrhea; for women, it is constipation.
7.	Thou shalt not steal.	You have a right to your own personal and private property and so does everyone else. Personal and private property includes one's DNA, sexuality, health care and voting. Intrusive anti-transcendental stimulative behavior will be avoided. Personal and private property will be protected by following the Gifts of the Holy Spirit: Wisdom - sound judgment. Understanding - comprehending and reasoning in terms of the faith. Counsel - trustworthiness by poverty, chastity, and obedience. Fortitude - courage in the face of adversity. Knowledge - in depth familiarity with created things. Piety - fidelity to duty as love. Fear of (offending) the Lord - servile fear of punishment and/or filial fear of offending and separating from God.
8.	Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.	Loving Truth will set and keep you free. Jesus (Loving Truth) brought the Transcendentals: Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of Heaven. Blessed are the meek for they shall possess the land. Blessed are they that mourn for they shall be comforted. Blessed are they that hunger and thirst after justice, for they shall be filled. Blessed are the merciful because they shall obtain mercy. Blessed are the pure of heart because they shall see God. Blessed are the peacemakers for they shall be called the children of God. Blessed are they that suffer persecution for God's sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
9.	Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife.	Keep your relationships holy, uplifting and honorable. Angels and words are messengers more than the phonemes strung together. Angels are the spiritual personification of words and are the means of all relationships. Without words (angels), nothing happens from God. Without angels, one is left with the solipsistic silliness of emotive fantasies and paganistic gnostic foolishness that do not really make one transcendentally intact with the universe. With one's own individual guardian angel, one can ask all the questions, one can plea for all the help; and one can rest assured that guidance and protection will be forthcoming with whatever occurs in all relationships. And it will happen by angels (words).
10.	Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's goods.	Keep "things" from running your life. 'Peace' is productive tranquility based on Order, emanating from Truth, established according to norms of empathic Justice, Temperance, Fortitude, and Prudence, under the auspices of genuine Liberty, and sustained by life-loving, happiness pursuing Charity.
